STANDARD FOR SAFETY

Automatic Electrical Controls for Household and Similar Use; Part 2: Particular Requirements for Thermal Motor Protectors for Motor-Compressors of Hermetic and Semi-Hermetic Type

UL Standard for Safety for Automatic Electrical Controls for Household and Similar Use; Part 2: Particular Requirements for Thermal Motor Protectors for Motor-Compressors of Hermetic and Semi-Hermetic Type, UL 60730-2-4

First Edition, Dated January 17, 2003

Summary of Topics

These revisions are being issued to:

1) Add a national difference to the Heat, Fire and Tracking section, Section 21, to clarify that it is applicable only to non-metallic and insulating materials which are outside the motor-compressor housing.

2) Reflect the established effective date of UL 60730-2-4. AS OF OCTOBER 19, 2018, THE TWELFTH EDITION OF UL 873 WILL BE WITHDRAWN AND WILL BE REPLACED BY THIS STANDARD.

Text that has been changed in any manner or impacted by UL's electronic publishing system is marked with a vertical line in the margin.

The revised requirements are substantially in accordance with Proposal(s) on this subject dated November 27, 2013 and February 25, 2014.

Although every page is being redated, the only changes being made are to the UL Title Page, Preface, Foreword, National Difference page and to Section 21.

UL provides this Standard "as is" without warranty of any kind, either expressed or implied, including but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for any purpose.

In no event will UL be liable for any special, incidental, consequential, indirect or similar damages, including loss of profits, lost savings, loss of data, or any other damages arising out of the use of or the inability to use this Standard, even if UL or an authorized UL representative has been advised of the possibility of such damage. In no event shall UL's liability for any damage ever exceed the price paid for this Standard, regardless of the form of the claim.

Users of the electronic versions of UL's Standards for Safety agree to defend, indemnify, and hold UL harmless from and against any loss, expense, liability, damage, claim, or judgment (including reasonable attorney's fees) resulting from any error or deviation introduced while purchaser is storing an electronic Standard on the purchaser's computer system.

The requirements in this Standard are now in effect, except for those paragraphs, sections, tables, figures, and/or other elements of the Standard having future effective dates as indicated in the preface. The prior text for requirements that have been revised and that have a future effective date are located after the Standard, and are preceded by a "SUPERSEDED REQUIREMENTS" notice.

The following table lists the future effective dates with the corresponding reference.
